

'HK's OCTOBER BLOG'

The blog of Mullenscote Dog Training Centre and Lains Shooting School

Issue 12 – October 2013

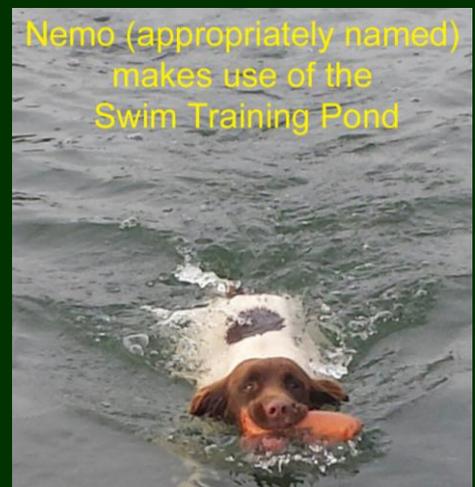

Well it's definitely Autumn, the nights are drawing in fast and already the Shooting season is here, yeeehah! We are making a weekly trip to see Mike and Antonia Appleby at the The Honeycombe Shoot in Dorset where they have laid on some superb Training Days for us. In preparation for the Trialling season we have been Shooting over our dogs, it's just the perfect way to spend a Tuesday. The dogs are really starting to come together and we are able to work through any problems that come to light.

We have finally moved into the Lodge (The Little House on the Prairie, The Shed, The Kennels and Howards Man Cave are just a couple of names that have been put forward), it's so nice to be living here on site we are just so pleased to be in. Living on the job has so many benefits, this business has always been a way of life for me and this just makes 'Living the Dream' just that bit easier.

The start of the Game Shooting Season see's the arrival of the Migratory Game Shooters who having spent the summer Casting a Fly have put down their Rods and picked up the Trusty Fire Stick. Catching up with lots of people that I haven't seen for ages is another one of the bonuses that a new season brings. Whilst on the subject of Fishing our new Swim Training Pond (for dogs) is full of water but as yet has no fish in it. We now have to establish an Eco balance in it that will help to keep the water healthy and inviting for dogs, so if any of you are aquatic plant or fish experts we'd be delighted to receive any advice or tips.

Quote of the Month...

"Do you think that the fact that Fido got into my neighbours garden and killed her Guinea Pigs last month has any bearing on Fido killing her new Guinea Pigs again earlier today?" .....

Courses

Our PAWGO dog training courses continue to go from strength to strength with some fantastic advances in knowledge, techniques and handling skills being demonstrated by the handlers. With so many handlers experiencing, discussing and problem solving the day to day problems that dog owners experience we are gaining a wealth of knowledge that sometimes throws up some really great stuff. At the start of all of our Foundation courses handlers are briefed that we need to encourage the dogs to want to retrieve and at this stage I don't care if the dog learns to carry dummies or fluffy slippers. Sarah and Jessie passed their Bronze Assessment retrieving Pink Fluffy Slippers and have now progressed to proper dummies. Demonstrating pure genius Darren gave us a real blinder by giving us all an excellent demo and assessment by encouraging his awesome English

Pointer Hubble to retrieve packets of crisps, without trying to eat them. Darren had been struggling to develop Hubble's interest in retrieving and the crisps have done their trick.

Saturday 26th October will see the start of our new Kennel Club Working Gundog Certificate Course. For dogs and handlers that have achieved the standards required for our Gold Award, we will meet for Six training sessions. These sessions will encourage handlers to further develop their dogs in preparation for the Shooting field. At some point after the course we will be running an Assessment day for the KC Working Gundog Certificate.
