

'HK's Christmas BLOG'

The blog of Mullenscote Dog Training Centre and Lains Shooting School

Issue 8 - December 2012

Well here we are, Christmas 2012, another year has flown by. It's been a good one for us here, we've been asked to assist a lot of customers old and new with their Shooting or Dogs, and we've had a lot of fun on the way. A combination of the weather and an unpredictable economy have meant that most of us have had to tighten our belts during 2012. But we haven't and won't let all of that nonsense dampen our spirits, everyone I speak to is having a great shooting season and we're really looking forward to Christmas.

The Mullenscote dogs are in flying form and after our early season Trial success with Link (Chyknell Eagle of Mullenscote), Ian Openshaw (the man is a Legend, he has now made up 99 FTCH's and its just a matter of time before he does the 100) has successfully run and made up Ruby (Western Rosie) to Field Trial Champion (FTCH), for us which also means that she has qualified for the Cocker Championships to be run at Sandrigham in January. In the meantime I've been campaigning Link in Open's with mixed success, he has got a little trial wise and has taken to 'pulling me around' at Trials so he is currently undergoing more training. Our Tri.coloured cocker Monty has now done two Novice trials and I've been very pleased with his performance but we are yet to get an award. Anyway plenty of chances to run in January so fingers crossed.

For the second time we have been nominated for The Countryside Alliance Business Enterprise awards so we are now hoping and waiting that the Countryside Alliance Judges will 'Come a Knocking' in the New Year. We came in as Highly Recommended Runners up in 2009 so it would be really great if we could win this time.

We will be holding our first Kennel Club Good Citizen Bronze course for non shooting dogs which start in February so very much looking forward to that venture. See below for further details.

To all of our customers, helpers, suppliers, friends ,family and to anyone that happens to read this Blog I sincerely hope you have the most Fantastic Christmas and a healthy and Prosperous New Year.

A FUNNY

Our very hard working team that run 'The Office' are very efficient and always do their level best to ensure customers are well looked after, occasionally mistakes are made. On a daily basis the Office computer notifies us of DVD sales and the DVD's are then packaged and dispatched along with a despatch notification by email to the purchasers. After one busy morning we received this lovely reply....

Dear Mr. Kirby,

I fear you've got the wrong Mrs. Smith, I live in the United States and don't have a dog - only a cat that is a pretty good hunter on her own. I don't think she needs to watch your DVDs.

Best wishes x

So Mr. Jones tell me about the difficulties you are having with Fido" says Howard. "Well;;; I walk Fido on the New Forest and she has taken to chasing the ponies, I'm really not happy with that, she also chases rabbits, cattle, cars, dogs, sheep and birds and I'm not happy with any of that, she will occasionally chase Joggers but I'm not too worried about that!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"
